BIBLE THOUGHT FOR TODAY

IF:—If my people, which are called by my name, shall humble themselves, and pray, and seek my face, and turn from their wicked ways:

THEN:—Then will I hear from heaven, and will forgive their sin, and will heal their land.—2 Chronicles 7: 14.

Truth is often stranger than fiction, and, oftener, scarcer.—Springfield Republican.

Objection is made to "The Star-Spangled Banner" because the people as a rule, know only a few lines of it. Not very convincing. The only verse that people seem to know clear through is the Doxology.—Globe Democrat.

A PRONOUNCED SUCCESS

The uniform success that has attended the use of Chamberlain's Colic and Diarrhoea Remedy in the relief and cure of bowel complaints, both for children and adults, has brought it into almost universal use, so that it is practically without a rival and as everyone who has used it knows, it is without an equal.

RETURN FROM PRIEST RIVER, IDAHO

Mr. and Mrs. George Rice have returned from a month's visit at Priest River, Idaho. They spent some time at Priest Lake. Mr. and Mrs. Willis W. Lehnhard, of this place arrived there twelve days before they left and spent the time with them. Mr. Rice reports that Mr. Lehnhard has gained much flesh since going there and is feeling much better. He said the hunting and fishing was fine. The camp is near Coolin at the south end of the lake.

Priest Lake is a large body of water. It is thirty miles long and from one to six miles wide, its depth varying from a foot to 200 feet. Fish are numerous in its waters and wild game is plenty. Temperature while Mr. Rice and family were there did not go above 88 degrees and one night it dropped to 34, with a light frost.

Mr. Rice visited Jesse Parsons, who owns a newspaper at Priest River. He reports that Mr. Parsons has a well equipped office and that he is doing well with the business. He contemplates buying his own building this year. Mrs. Parsons says that he gets along well with the work until someone mentions "fishing," then business takes second place. The town is located on the Clark river, called the "Pend" by them, and a swim in the river is a part of every day's routine.

THE KEY THAT UNLOCKS THE DOOR TO LONG LIVING

The men of eighty-five and ninety years of age are not the rotund, well-fed, but thin, spare men, who live on a slender diet. Be as careful as he will, however, a man past middle age will occasionally eat too much or of some article of food not suited to his constitution, causing indigestion or constipation and will need a dose of Chamberlain's Tablets to move his bowels and invigorate his stomach. When this is done, there is no reason why the average man should not live to a ripe old age.
